

1897-028 Chancery Causes: M. G. Ely vs. John B. Calliham &
Lee Co.

Thomas

CA-Contract Dispute
T-Property

-Deed

To the Hon. W. V. Miller, Judge of the circuit Court of Lee County, Va.

Humbly Complaining, your orator M. G.
Ely respectfully represents that he is beneficiary in a deed of Trust executed to A. C. Ely, Trustee, on the 14th day of August, 1895, by John B. Calliham, which deed of Trust is here filed marked "A1" and is prayed to be taken as part of this bill.

Your orator further represents that a ~~deed of Trust~~ ^{writing} was executed to H. Thomas on the 8th day of June, 1894, by the said John B.
Calliham on the same land, an office copy of which is here filed marked "C"; that there is now pending a Chancery suit in your Honorable Court, the object of which is to set aside said last-named deed of Trust on account of a failure of Consideration; that ~~John B. Calliham~~ ^{Catherine Thomas} is the beneficiary in the last-named writing and H. Thomas is supposed to be Trustee, at least he assumes to be, and as such he on the 7th day of Oct- 1895 advertized that he will sell the land named in each of said papers on the 6th day of November, 1895.

Now, your orator alleges that the last-named deed of Trust is without Consideration.
The prayer of your orator is that J. H. Thomas, Trustee, for the benefit of ~~John B. Calliham~~ ^{Catherine Thomas} be enjoined and prohibited from selling said land till said last-named suit is decided; that J. H. Thomas, Trustee, and John B. Calliham and Catherine Thomas be made parties defendant to this bill and that they answer the same but not upon oath, that being waived; that process issue &c., directed &c., and that general relief be granted your order and as in duty bound he will ever pray.

no. 55 In Chancery - John B. Callahan et al. Defts

This cause came on this day to be heard upon the bill of complainant and exhibits filed therewith, and process duly executed upon the defendants. J. H. Thomas and Catharine Thomas, and they to appear plead answer and deny the same is taken for confessed as to them, And was argued by counsel,

On consideration of which, and it appearing that the matters in controversy have been settled in another cause pending in this court, the court doth adjudge, order and decree that the plaintiff recover of the defendants his costs of this suit to be taxed by the clerk, for which execution may issue, And the cause is stricken from the docket,

This indenture, made this the 16th day of August 1895 between John B. Calliham of the one part and A. C. Ely Trustee of the second part both parties of the county of Lee and state of Virginia, Witnesseth that whereas the said John B. Calliham is justly indebted to Mr. A. C. Ely in the sum of Fifty dollars with interest from the 16th day of August 1895 till paid, as appears by the bond of the said John B. Calliham, bearing date the 16th day of August 1895 and due twelve months after the date thereof, which said debt with interest aforesaid, the said John B. Calliham binds himself to pay whenever and is now more desirous to effectually to secure; Now therefore this indenture witnesseth, that the said John B.
Calliham for and in consideration of the premises and of one dollar in hand paid the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged doth, grant bargain sell and convey unto the said A. C. Ely with covenants of general warranty all that certain tract or parcel of land situated in Lee County Va. it being the same tract which was conveyed to the said John B. Calliham by Ethel Wyse which said tract or parcel of land is bounded by the lands of Joseph Graybill A. H. Fulkerson, Abe Barber and Marion Wolfe containing 43 acres more or less. In Trust nevertheless, and for the use, interest and purpose following, and none other namely: That the said John B. Calliham shall be suffered to remain in quiet-and peaceful possession and enjoyment of the said premises, until default be made in the payment of the debt aforesaid, with its interest aforesaid, or some part thereof: And when the said John B. Callikam shall make default in the payment of the said debt with interest as aforesaid, or any part thereof, then upon this further trust, that as soon after such default as the said M. G. Ely or his assigns, shall request, the said A. C. Ely shall proceed, at such time and place as he or they shall think best, to sell the said tract or parcel of land, or so much thereof as it may be necessary to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, having first given 30 days notice of the time and place of the sale in one or more public places, And out of the proceeds of such sale shall pay, first all costs and charges attending the execution of this trust: Secondly, shall pay to the said M. G. Ely or his assigns, the sum of fifty dollars, with all the interest that shall have accrued thereon as aforesaid, or so much of said debt and interest as shall then remain unpaid, and balance if any, shall pay to the said John B. Callikam, And if the said John B. Callikam shall well and truly pay the said debt, with interest thereon as aforesaid, and make no default therein, then this deed shall be void, or else shall remain in full force and virtue, Witness my hand and seal, this the date above written.
